Closet Admirer

Atmosphere Consulting

It's been the loveliest spring in years (thank you, global warming). And with summer just weeks away, it's time to tone up, slim down, and get rid of that extra weight.

No, we're not talking about the lbs. you packed on over the winter (we've seen you running the Esplanade to fix that).

We mean your closet.

Call Atmosphere Consulting, and owner (and professional organizer) Ann Marie Williams will take your storage spaces from cluttered to clean in a matter of hours. She'll help you trim your wardrobe down to the pieces you wear most and give you the thumbs down on any ill-fitting finds. She'll assess your storage needs, too.

And once she's finished, Williams donates the hand-me-downs to local charities (or takes them to a consignment shop, per your request).

Giving you a reason to get out there and load up on flouncy skirts and dresses — and show off the slim, summertime you.
